THE DOCKET

Yes, this building was once Putnam's Courthouse! Built in 1889, the "Courthouse Block" held court upstairs amongst professional offices including Superintendent of Schools James W. Frost - my grandfather. Downstairs housed many different stores throughout the years: Neo-Progress Confectionaire; a soda fountain shoppe, First National Grocery; now Edward's Finast and Smith and Walker Paint Store. The new Courthouse was built on Church Street in 1956. Currently you may enjoy shopping in Putnam's quaint antique and novelty stores then enjoy a hearty meal in our court-themed, friendly and casual atmosphere, where we proudly support the local farming and fishing industries whenever possible. Enjoy your visit! - JWF
